

NOVEMBER 11, 2018
32ND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Pastor's Corner

In the month of November, as the liturgical year comes to a close, the Church sets our sights on other-worldly realities – our membership in the communion of saints and our destined return to our Heavenly Father's home. On November 01 we celebrated the Solemnity of All Saints and on November 02 the Commemoration of all the Faithful Departed or All Soul's. While the Church constantly remembers all its faithful departed, especially at the celebration of the Holy Mass, it does so with a special solicitude during the Month of November. At St. Helen's we pray for all the departed members of our parish community especially those we have recently lost. There is a basket found in front of the altar into which all parishioners are welcome to place the names of those they would like remembered in a special way at the celebration of the Masses during this month.

This coming week Fr. Konrad and I will be at the annual priest's study days as part of our ongoing priestly formation. These study days are mandatory for all priests with an official assignment in the Archdiocese of Vancouver. While normally there would be no Masses offered during our absence Fr. Aloysius, who is in residence with us, has graciously offered to celebrate the morning Masses on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Friday (but is unable to celebrate the Thursday morning Mass due to his school commitments). Thus the weekday schedule for Monday November 12 to Friday November 16 is as follows:

MONDAY	NOV. 12	- 7:45AM Mass
TUESDAY	NOV. 13	- 7:45AM Mass
WEDNESDAY	NOV. 14	- 7:45AM Mass
THURSDAY	NOV. 15	- NO MASS
FRIDAY	NOV. 16	- 7:45AM Mass

The weekend schedule, beginning on Saturday morning, is as normal. In Christ,
 Fr. Alessandro
